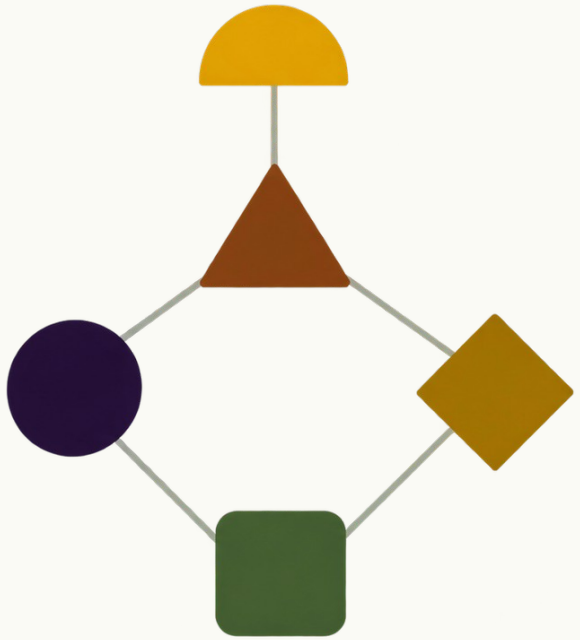
A fresh perspective on people

HR Advisory

Complementary advisory services for Human Resources professionals.

Recruitment, onboarding and team development.



Areas of support

Recruitment and onboarding

Exploring individual characteristics and potential dynamics when joining existing teams.

Individual development

Recognising strengths, preferences and opportunities for growth.

Communication and relationships

Understanding differences in interaction and encouraging dialogue among colleagues.

Leadership

Exploring approaches to communication, support and delegation.

Two ways to work together

Project-based advisory

Focused support for a specific need: recruitment, onboarding or particular team challenges.

Ongoing advisory

Regular meetings with HR to explore real situations, navigate change and identify next steps.

How it works

01 Initial conversation

Understanding the context, objectives and needs of the HR team.

02 Defining the scope

Identifying relevant people and topics, with transparency and data protection.

03 Preliminary analysis

Preparing an interpretive reading of the profiles provided.

04 Meeting with HR

Sharing observations, discussing possibilities and exploring practical applications.

A complementary approach

Valuing what makes each person unique, recognising their natural potential and supporting better integration within teams.

Our approach

Through Human Design, we explore different ways of working, communicating and making decisions, offering HR an additional perspective on people and team dynamics.
